FROM THE SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY SUN, JAN. 26, 1917

Ontario
MOTOR CAR KILLS RECENT RESIDENT

Victim of Crossing Mishap Came to California Not Long Ago to See Son

Ontario, Jan. 25. --- (Staff correspondence of THE SUN) --- Ewke Waterhouse Thomas, a retired farmer, recently instantly killed at noon today when struck by a motor car driven by 15-year-old Charles Rhodes of Anaheim. Mr. Thomas was rushed to the San Antonio Hospital following the crash by Dr. C. A. Warmer, but died shortly after his arrival without regaining consciousness.

Mr. Thomas was crossing Cherry avenue on foot as young Rhodes, who was accompanied by his stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hemphill, apparently became confused and jumped back in front of the car after he was half way across the street.

The tragedy was witnessed by Mrs. Mary Brisbin as she sat on her porch at 312 East A Street.

Mr. Thomas, who was 65 years of age, is survived by a widow, residing at 118 South Malcomb street, and by several grown children. One son, Paul Monroe Thomas, is an employee of the Ontario-Upland Gas Company.

Coroner J. L. McMinn has been notified and the inquest will be held tomorrow morning at Draper's Morgue.

Young Rhodes and his parents were allowed their liberty upon their promise to appear at the inquest tomorrow. The motor party was en route from Anaheim to Riverdale when the accident occurred. They had just made a short call en route at the home of O. H. Mayhew, 321 East D street.
